A WELCOME FROM THE Mayor

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the City of Fountains and the Heart of America. The secret is out: Kansas City is an exceptional, exciting place to visit, live, work and play.

We cannot wait for you to discover everything Kansas City has to offer. From learning about the Black pioneers of baseball at the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum in the Historic 18th & Vine Jazz District to catching the fare-free streetcar to one of our local downtown businesses, there are countless gems around our community we are proud to share with our visitors.

In Kansas City, we take pride in prioritizing impactful investments to improve the lives of Kansas Citians. We are investing tens of millions of dollars to create more affordable housing throughout our community, and we are expanding sustainability efforts to ensure Kansas City is clean, green and healthy for generations to come. You may start to see solar panels going up around the airport as we begin to construct America's largest solar array, helping us reach our goal of carbon neutrality by 2040.

Kansas City is also proud to be a sports city, home of the World Champion Kansas City Chiefs, the Kansas City Royals and the Kansas City Current, whose stadium is the first in the world built intentionally and exclusively for women's professional soccer, open this year on our beautiful riverfront. Read more about the team and their historical project on pg. 18.

After just a short time here, I'm confident you'll come to share our love of our beautiful city and all it has to offer. On behalf of the entire Kansas City community, thank you for visiting—and we can't wait to have you back.

Quinton Lucas
Mayor of Kansas City, Missouri

Kansas City International Airport

VINE STREET BREWING CO.

Missouri's first Black-owned brewery is bringing new history to Kansas City's essential jazz district. Under the direction of founder Kemet Coleman, a rapper and producer whose musical works span genres, creativity lies at the very heart of Vine Street Brewing Co. (or VSB for short). Coleman and two additional founders—Woodie Bonds Jr., creator of Kansas City's first hip-hop beer festival, and Elliott Ivory, a KC-based homebrewer—designed the establishment to serve as a cultural hub, bringing fresh-brewed beer to a neighborhood with rich jazz roots and deep significance to Black history both locally and nationally. VSB hosts a regular roster of live music performances, so you'll want to check in frequently for the latest lineups.

North Kansas City

FIERCE COMPETITION FOLLOWED BY FRIENDLY DRINKS

North Kansas City has made its presence felt with the incredibly fun activities it offers to the community. One of its biggest draws is Chicken N Pickle, a family-friendly bar and restaurant that boasts pickleball courts, yard games, live music and all-out fun. Pickleball has taken the nation by storm, and Chicken N Pickle (and its numerous locations) has certainly played a major part in that movement.

Win, lose or draw, it's time to go grab some celebratory drinks with your teammates and friends. Raise a glass at Sail Away Wine, where your Wine Passport allows you the freedom to try different wines and regions, whether by the taste or glass. Your toughest decision will be whether to start with red, white or bubbles.

If spirits are more your vibe, check out Restless Spirits—one of the top distilleries in Missouri. Offering world-class whiskey, gin and vodka, Restless has carved its place into Kansas City's cocktail scene.

If it turns out that everyone just wants a cold, celebratory beer, look no further than Cinder Block Brewery. Chock-full of IPAs, Pilsners, sours, porters, ciders and more, Cinder Block is one of the most charming breweries in Kansas City.

18th & Vine

BURSTING AT THE SEAMS WITH KANSAS CITY HISTORY

One of the most revered and acclaimed neighborhoods in Kansas City, this historic jazz district showcases some of the best barbecue and music joints in town, while its hallowed museums contain rich history.

The Negro Leagues Baseball Museum is an iconic Kansas City staple, dedicated to preserving and highlighting the history of Negro Leagues baseball in the United States. Jackie Robinson, Satchel Paige, Buck O'Neil and countless others—this baseball shrine shares the legacies of historic Black baseball players and their impact on the game.

Since 1997, the American Jazz Museum has chronicled the sights and sounds of Kansas City jazz through interactive exhibits, film, performances and educational programs. After a visit, take your newfound knowledge of the genre into the Blue Room for live jam sessions, toe-tapping vibes and band sets, happening regularly throughout the week.

Around the corner, the Black Archives of Mid-America maintains an important educational resource for the community, collecting and preserving materials that showcase the social, cultural, political and socioeconomic histories of Black Americans in the Midwest.

a store named STUFF

Cafe Cà Phê

Brookside

SHOP 'TIL YOU DROP IN ONE OF KANSAS CITY'S OLDEST NEIGHBORHOODS

As one of the quaintest communities in the city, Brookside is known for exuding small-town, neighborly vibes around every corner. The Brookside Art Annual and Brookside Farmers' Market are known throughout the city as absolute musts alongside fantastic restaurants and shops to explore.

One of the most notable and unique shopping spots in Brookside is a store named STUFF. Its wares feature fine artists, local creators, small-batch makers and those with a penchant for functionality and fun. Home decor, KC pride, hand-poured candles, puzzles, fine art and floral—if you can dream it, they probably have it.

Brookside Toy & Science (BT&S) has been referred to as "the best toy store ever" by its smallest of patrons. Everything a little dreamer could ever want is found within its four walls—yet even adults can relive the excitement through all BT&S has to offer. Board games, bubbles, models and markers line the shelves, and they even have a science-focused section for budding minds.

For the smells-good shopper, The Corner Candleshop has been one of Kansas City's go-to candle suppliers for nearly two decades. Locally owned and loved, The Corner Candleshop offers nearly every variety of candle one could hope for.

Columbus Park

DON'T FORGET TO TREAT YOURSELF EVERY ONCE IN AWHILE

It never hurts to indulge, especially when you find yourself in Columbus Park with so many great food and drink options nearby. Take, for example, Cafe Cà Phê—Kansas City's first Vietnamese coffee shop. The menu is brilliant and puts a fresh spin on familiar favorites. Plus, bright colors and a team of welcoming baristas offer an irresistibly inviting environment.

After you've visited Cafe Cà Phê, head over to Happy Gillis Cafe and Hangout for a decadent menu of breakfast, brunch and lunch plates. If Italian is more your flavor, Garozzo's Ristorante brings a slice of Italy to the Midwest. Generous dishes and a family-style menu will make your heart and belly full. An equally comforting choice, Vietnam Cafe will keep you warm with a near-endless selection of pho, fried rice, noodle dishes and so much more.

For your dessert, hit up Swoon Cookie Crafters for some of the most delectable (and aesthetically pleasing) cookies you'll ever eat. Swoon makes custom cookies for every occasion that taste as good as they look—no one would blame you if a few get eaten on the way home.

Slap's BBQ

Westport Cafe

Strawberry Hill

DISHING OUT BARBECUE DELICACIES AND MUCH MORE

Anyone who's ever stepped foot in this Sunflower State neighborhood understands why it's earning a reputation as one of the most treasured gems in the Kansas City metro: friendly vibes, small-town allure and a robust selection of delights to please any visitor.

After opening its doors to the public in 2014, Slap's BBQ quickly became a fan favorite of many locals. The menu showcases nearly every entree and side you'd hope for from a barbecue joint, with fresh meat smoked on a daily basis.

Right across the street from Slap's is Chicago's—a quaint dive bar where decorated dollar bills abound amongst some of the most eclectic decorations you'll find in any area watering hole. Whether you go for a quick pint, to watch the Chiefs play or both, this will be one spot you're sure to frequent.

While in Strawberry Hill, be sure to swing by Splitlog Coffee Co. or Kinship Cafe for your pre- or post-dinner caffeine fix. Splitlog offers a convenient drive-thru and an inviting interior. Kinship Cafe, a specialty coffee shop known for its flash cold brew, also offers numerous wrap and sandwich options.

Westport

CELEBRATE YOUR BIGGEST MOMENTS (OR SMALLEST VICTORIES)

When you and your friends require a much-needed night out, Westport is essential. Whether celebrating a birthday or a new job or simply making it through the week, there are numerous options to raise a glass and toast each other.

Ça Va is Kansas City's beloved champagne bar, curated to bring people together over bubbles. Whether a happy hour, Sunday brunch or a bottle to go, Ça Va has the allure and mystique of any champagne destination plucked from Paris. The patio is a summertime oasis and their cellar-clearing events can't be missed.

Speaking of French inspiration, Westport Cafe offers a brilliant glimpse into modern Parisian cuisine and cocktails—no passport required. The atmosphere is warm and inviting, perfect for pairing your favorite dinner and drinks.

Fountain Haus has quickly become a fan favorite with its numerous themed levels, offering unique and fun entertainment alongside a full-service bar and menu. LGBTQ-owned and -operated, Fountain Haus exists to welcome all, and its Sunday Service Drag Brunch serves up one of the most entertaining dining experiences in town.

CHANGING THE Game

The Kansas City Current is making history in the heartland.

IT ALL BEGAN WITH A CURRENT

As the Missouri River carried 19th-century traders across the nation by steamboat, its frequent passengers set up a riverfront trading post at the confluence of the Missouri and Kansas Rivers. The riverfront commerce hub, known then as Westport Landing and acknowledged now as the original birthplace of modern Kansas City, established the foundation of a new economic and cultural center at the heart of the country.

And now, nearly two centuries later and just one mile away, the Kansas City Current stands ready to carry us forward into a new era for women's sports—right here in KC, across the country, and all around the world.

GETTING STARTED

During the FIFA Women's World Cup 2019, as the U.S. Women's National Team battled to victory, KC-based business leaders Angie Long and Chris Long were in Paris to watch the action unfold live. Throughout the tournament, they were struck by images of one city's raucous watch parties that drew continuous coverage on broadcasts in France and around the world—their hometown, Kansas City.

Hardly a year later, the opportunity arose to relocate a National Women's Soccer League (NWSL) team that had been playing in Utah. The Longs, encouraged by the demonstrations of KC's soccer enthusiasm they had seen on television in Paris, leapt at the chance. The move established them as founders and owners of the Kansas City Current, along with entrepreneur Brittany Mahomes. (In 2023, the ownership group expanded to include Patrick Mahomes, Kansas City Chiefs quarterback and Brittany's husband.) Together, they made plans for a team to blaze a trail for the future of women's sports.

CREATING A LEGACY

The Current officially began play during the 2021 season. Within months, the club's ownership announced a series of investments in women's sports that were unmatched anywhere in the world.

In 2022, the team opened a first-of-its-kind training facility for a women's professional sports team, providing top-tier resources for daily use by Current players and front office staff. The complex has also hosted the U.S. Women's National Team for training.

The training facility was the first major piece of sports infrastructure established by the history-making franchise—and the precursor to an even larger accomplishment. This season, players take their talents to the field in unprecedented fashion with the debut of the team's pinnacle achievement: the world's first purpose-built women's professional sports stadium.

BUILDING FOR THE COMMUNITY

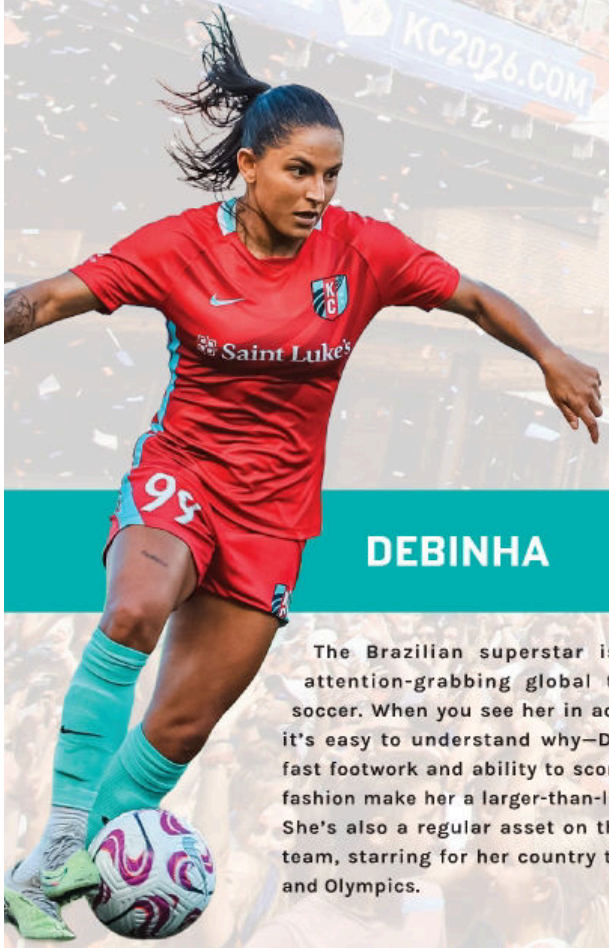

After finding inspiration in France, opportunity in the heart of the country and supporters all over the map, the team's ownership and devoted fans have followed the Kansas City Current to its final and most significant destination—a permanent, history-making home on the banks of the Missouri River.

A crown jewel and catalyst for the burgeoning Berkley Riverfront area, the stadium stands shimmering in front of the KC skyline, welcoming travelers who arrive in Downtown Kansas City from the north. Inside, fan sections offer panoramic views of the river and cityscape. The stadium's seating for 11,500 guests is designed to maintain a loud and lively soccer atmosphere while keeping fans close to the action, so you're certain to quickly embrace your place in the matchday crowd.

Before the competition begins and after it concludes, the neighborhood offers an ideal chance for relaxation thanks to a nearly mile-long park, plus a trail for pedestrians and bikers, stretching along the riverfront. Plus, watch for concerts and other sporting events at the stadium as one of KC's newest and most unique venues delivers year-round opportunities for revelry along the river.

MEET THE TEAM

Before your first time in the stands, get to know a few key players on the KC Current Roster.

DEBINHA

The Brazilian superstar is one of the most attention-grabbing global talents in women's soccer. When you see her in action for the Current, it's easy to understand why—Debinha's impossibly fast footwork and ability to score goals in cinematic fashion make her a larger-than-life figure on the field. She's also a regular asset on the Brazilian national team, starring for her country twice at Worlds Cups and Olympics.

LO'EAU LABONTA

Recognized by fans as a spark of joy, LaBonta's commitment to the spirit of the game—alongside her reputation as a consistent playmaker in the midfield—makes her a uniquely treasured member of the local sports community. Beyond emblazoning billboards in KC, her viral cellies (that's soccer slang for celebrations) have earned adoration from followers around the world.

LOCAL INSPIRATION

Even as it draws global headlines, the standard-setting stadium remains authentic to Kansas City in its food and entertainment offerings.

COLBY AND MEGAN GARRELTS OF RYE KC

Award-winning chefs Colby and Megan Garrelts have lent their culinary expertise to the Current as chef partners in the development of the stadium's premium food and beverage menus. The pair are a centerpiece of Kansas City's dynamic dining landscape, with Colby receiving recognition from the James Beard Foundation Awards as Best Chef Midwest and Megan earning a nod as a James Beard semifinalist for Outstanding Pastry Chef.

For an extended exploration of their irresistibly comforting American fare, make a visit to either of Rye's two restaurant locations, found on the Country Club Plaza and in Leawood, Kansas.

JOE'S KANSAS CITY BAR-B-QUE

Kansas City's newest landmark meets one of the region's original claims to fame. Thanks to the smoked meat masterminds at Joe's Kansas City Bar-B-Que, fans from near and far can enjoy KC's signature cuisine on matchday.

Famous for its original location inside a gas station, Joe's KC regularly garners national and international attention for flavorful menu staples like the Z-Man Sandwich.

HAILIE MACE

A standout defender, Mace has proven her all-around presence on the pitch with the Current. Seven goals for the team across three seasons have garnered Mace league recognition and even broken into SportsCenter's Top 10 for one of her signature bangers—a goal scored on a hard shot from distance. She's also familiar with competition on the international stage, appearing in a total of eight matches for the U.S. Women's National Team throughout her young career.

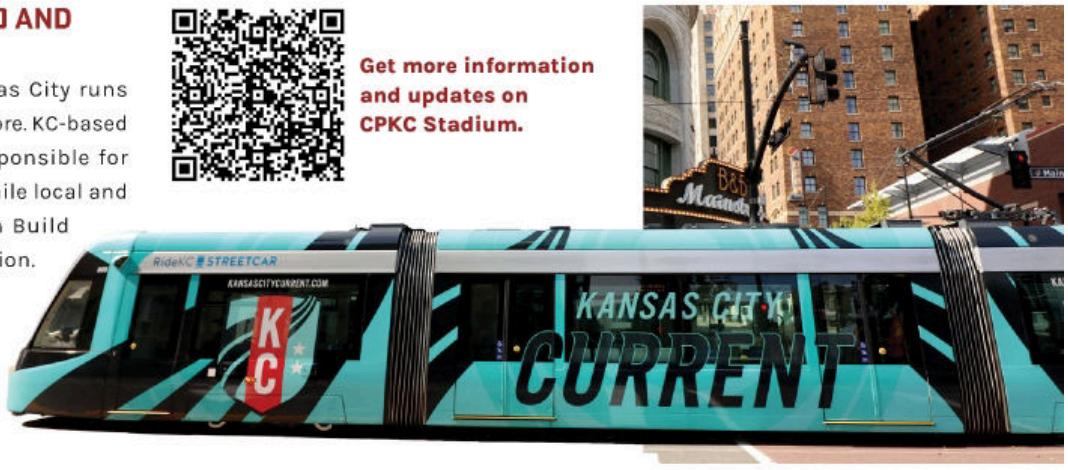

MICHELLE COOPER

One of the league's young stars is building a name for herself in the Heartland. Cooper joined the Current as the #2 overall pick in the 2023 NWSL Draft following recognition during the final year of her college career as winner of the MAC Hermann Trophy, awarded to the top collegiate soccer player in the country. (Consider it the soccer equivalent of a Heisman.) Now, her play dazzles at the pro level as she makes a difference for the team in KC.

GENERATOR STUDIO AND MONARCH BUILD

A commitment to Kansas City runs straight to the facility's core. KC-based Generator Studio is responsible for the stadium's design, while local and woman-owned Monarch Build completed its construction.

RAISING Spirits

Kansas City's cocktail culture is more vibrant than ever, with crafty drinks and buzzing bars at every turn.

VOO Lounge + Piano Bar

INSPIRED BY KC'S PROHIBITION PAST

KC largely ignored the Prohibition laws of the 1920s, sparking a renaissance in spirits that continues to inspire the city's modern drinking establishments.

Head to the intriguing and industrial West Bottoms to see it firsthand. The neighborhood is home to a street that earned a reputation as "the wettest block in the world" during the Prohibition era, when Kansas residents would cross the state line to patronize the saloons and liquor stores that continued to operate openly in Missouri. The neighborhood's legendary nature lives on today, providing a timeless place for laid-back revelry through drinkeries that marry fine beverages with the district's rustic beauty, like The Ship or West Bottoms Whiskey Co.

Just on the other side of Downtown KC in the East Bottoms, J. Rieger & Co. is nothing short of a wonderland for spirits enthusiasts. Once the nation's largest mail-order whiskey house, national Prohibition laws shuttered the company's operations for nearly a century. Now, the modern J. Rieger & Co. space features an expansive primary bar, a historical exhibit, a sublime subterranean experience at The Hey! Hey! Club, seasonal sights along with frozen specialties outside at Electric Park Garden Bar and a 40-foot slide that takes you downstairs to the exit after you've finished your drink.

CREATIVITY IN THE CROSSROADS

There are few better areas for raising a glass than the Crossroads Arts District. Home to popular distilleries, sparkling cocktail lounges and low-key local hangouts, keep the animated and always-changing neighborhood in mind for your next night out.

Occupying one of the district's liveliest corners, King G feels cool and casual all at once. You'll be set for the evening with great drinks and classic deli sandwiches. (If you're particularly lucky, you'll be able to find a place at the below-ground pit bar.) A few blocks away, take in sweeping views of Downtown Kansas City from the 14th floor at the The Mercury Room. It's an elevated experience in every sense, with twinkling lights and floor-to-ceiling windows offering a dreamlike atmosphere for enjoying some of the city's most carefully crafted drinks.

If you'd rather sip below the surface, head to Swordfish Tom's. Once you've followed the nondescript staircase and watched the lantern switch from red to green, it's your turn to step inside the brick-lined bar for an evening of pre-Prohibition elegance and unrelenting commitment to excellent mixology.

Plus don't miss the standout distilleries that call the Crossroads home. In addition to a prime location along Main Street, Tom's Town provides fine cocktails, seasonal experiences, distillery tours and a nod to Kansas City's Prohibition-defying past. Mean Mule pours its lauded agave spirits in a Southwest-inspired tasting room, and Lifted Spirits pleases curious patrons with a robust lineup of vodka, gin and absinthe.

MORE NEIGHBORHOODS TO KNOW

A trio of dazzling destinations can be found on the Country Club Plaza. Prime Social's indoor-outdoor rooftop space is a stellar choice for stylish drinks and seafood plates as you soak in panoramic views of the Spanish-inspired neighborhood. Nine Zero One at The Fontaine hotel offers another excellent option for rooftop drinks (and pairs them nicely with the chance to lounge poolside). Meanwhile, The Monarch Bar offers one of the city's most sophisticated cocktail experiences. A striking drink menu matches the allure of the venue's shimmering marble bar and butterfly chandelier, certain to capture your eye from the moment you enter.

For a truly sparkling encounter, make your way to Westport. Ça Va, Kansas City's beloved champagne bar, beckons guests to linger at its ultra-charming counter space (or outside on the equally inviting patio) with a glass of bubbles and a side of french fries.

In the heart of Downtown KC, a series of enchanting and impressive bar experiences can be found inside several popular hotels. The Crossroads Hotel is home to a warm and welcoming lobby hangout at XR as well as one of the area's favorite rooftops at Percheron, open seasonally. The Loews Kansas City Hotel's Bar Stilwell comes with sweeping skyline views that match the grandiosity of the bar's radiant architecture, while Horsefeather Social makes another incredible rooftop view available during the summer months.

More than a century worth of history is brought back to life inside the mesmerizing Savoy at 21c Museum Hotel. Down the street, VOO Lounge adds a jazz-inspired jewel to the storied Hotel Muehlebach, now part of the Kansas City Marriott Downtown. Slip below the Hotel Phillips for an elegantevening drink at P.S., or head downstairs to Nighthawk at Hotel Kansas City for an upbeat evening of live music and no-nonsense pours.

Nighthawk at Hotel Kansas City

FREE OF ALCOHOL, FULL OF FLAVOR

Prefer a drink prepared with creativity and care while opting out of alcohol content? You won't have to sacrifice a single bit of quality.

WILD CHILD

Wild Child sits perched on a lively corner of Downtown Shawnee. Inside, the evening's last rays of light make the bar's floral wallpapers shine so brightly they nearly glow. But the most captivating colors of the night can be found inside a glass: Vibrant yellows, pinks and oranges invite patrons of all preferences to grab a drink and linger on the rich flavors contained within.

Of course, every moment of the experience is by design. A sibling of the full-alcohol Drastic Measures—a 2023 James Beard Foundation Awards finalist—and located right next door, Wild Child relies on the input of true experts to deliver a second-to-none cocktail bar experience in an alcohol-optional setting. A menu of a dozen nonalcoholic drinks joins a robust wine list and a selection of alcoholic cocktails to create an atmosphere that welcomes guests of all palates and practices.

Thou Mayest

For more liquor-free libations and enviable atmospheres, hit up the bar at these hotspots throughout the region.

VERDIGRIS

Head to Leawood and take in all the ambiance of an upscale cocktail bar that caters to every inclintion. With an array of nonalcoholic spirits available behind the bar, Verdigris prepares a collection of classic and seasonal drinks in zero-proof fashion.

NOSTALGIA ROOM

Make the trip to Lawrence for a destination where sans-liquor libations take center stage. Nostalgia Room is entirely free of alcohol, cultivating an inviting neighborhood bar experience for all. (And while you're in the area, head up the street to 715 for another round. In addition to a range of warm and comforting dishes, the eclectic restaurant's menu prioritizes nonalcoholic creations.)

THOU MAYEST RIVER QUAY

If you're looking for a gathering spot where cocktails and spirits-free beverages can be enjoyed in perfect harmony, this woodsy outpost in the River Market fits the bill. Stellar coffee and tea selections are served alongside traditional mixed drinks well into the evening.
